PERSPECTIVE

Reforms are tested in operations. Cross-border programmes have two ends. Technology earns its place when it changes a decision. We advise from that operating view.

EXPERIENCE

Teams in Kenya and the United States. Advisers with careers in enterprise operations and asset management, technology reliability, programme delivery, life sciences and legal practice, across healthcare, education, energy, financial services, industry and humanitarian settings.

OUR ROLE

AfriSora provides advice, programme design and coordination. Recruitment, immigration, financial and other regulated services are carried out by licensed providers. We do not hold client funds or promise employment, visas, financing or investment returns.
